Welcome to Doyt Perry Field

Something for everyone — that's the theme for Bowling Green football in 1979. There is no finer family entertainment than college football on a Saturday afternoon. In addition to exciting MAC action, the Falcon Athletic Department has put together a series of pre-game and halftime shows and special promotions which we feel will appeal to fans of all ages.

Starting with the gala Shrine parade on September 8 and Band Day on September 22, throughout the season there will be sky divers, gifts and surprises for the youngsters, an automobile show, Homecoming activities and much, much more. Add to this one of the country's finest marching bands, tailgate parties and a football team with one of the most explosive offenses in the nation, and you've got a great day of entertainment.

A warm welcome to all of our fans and our special guests from Eastern Michigan, Central Michigan, Toledo, Miami and Southern Mississippi. We hope you thoroughly enjoy your day on the Bowling Green campus. And after the game, take the time to stroll the campus and visit its many outstanding buildings and facilities.

When the day is complete, we hope you will agree that it was an exciting visit. We hope to see you at many future Falcon athletic events.

Today's Visitor — Toledo

By Steve Shutt

A week ago today's match-up was not all that attractive. You had one team that had lost two straight games in which it was outscored 62-10. The other team had been outscored 94-45 in its first three games. All of that changed very quickly last weekend as both Bowling Green and Toledo evened their overall records and moved into MAC contention with impressive league victories.

While the Bowling Green defense was immense in the Falcons' 15-3 victory at Western Michigan, the Toledo defense was equally as good as the Rockets broke open a 7-7 tie with Eastern Michigan with 16 points in the final two minutes of the first half and breezed to a 37-7 victory. The Toledo defense accounted for nine points directly with a safety and a blocked punt, and another touchdown indirectly with a fumble recovery deep in EMU territory.

The defenses for the Falcons and Rockets dominated last week, but that has not been the recent history of the Bowling Green-Toledo series. In the last six years, the Falcons and Rockets have averaged 57 points between them. BG won 49-35 in 1973. Toledo rallied for a 24-19 victory in 1974. The Falcons have won the last four meetings by scores of 34-17, 29-28, 21-13, and last year, 45-27.

In last year's wild battle in Toledo, the Rockets led 20-10 at the half before BG erupted for 35 second half points to win going away. Quarterback Mike Wright paced the BG offense as he ran for two touchdowns and passed for two more. Wright totaled 341 yards in offense, just one yard short of his own school record. The two teams combined for more than 1,000 yards in total offense last year.

The key to today's game figures to be how well the defenses contain the quarterbacks. Bowling Green's Mike Wright led the MAC in total offense last year and is near the top again, while Toledo's Maurice Hall runs the option well, is an accurate short range passer and an excellent scrambler.

Bowling Green travels to Kent State for another Mid-American Conference game next week. The Falcons return home for their Homecoming Day bash with Miami on October 20.

Head Coach Denny Stolz

Denny Stolz is in his third year at Bowling Green State University following successful coaching stints at Alma College and Michigan State University.

A former Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year, he has amassed a 72-43-1 record as a collegiate head coach for a winning percentage of .591. That percentage could improve this season as Stolz' original recruits begin to mature in their third year in the program.

Before coming to Bowling Green, Stolz was the head coach at Michigan State from 1973-75. During his three year tenure, he led the Spartans to a 19-13-1 record which was the only winning record produced among Big Ten coaches other than Woody Hayes and Bo Schembechler.

His first club posted a 5-6 record in 1973, but a year later, he directed the Spartans to a 7-3-1 mark for the best effort at State since the 1966 season. The team was 6-1-1 in conference play and only a tie with Illinois kept it out of the title picture. His efforts earned him coaching plaudits from the Big Ten and the Spartans finished 12th in the AP poll and 18th in the UPI ratings. A 16-13 win over Ohio State highlighted the campaign as the Buckeyes were ranked number one at the time.

A year later, Stolz led State to a 7-4 record and a third place finish in the Big Ten. One of the team's big wins was a 10-3 decision over Notre Dame.

His coaching success earned him a spot as head coach of the North team in the 1976 All-American Bowl in Tampa and he directed his team to a win over the South team.

Stolz began his coaching career with the Spartans as an assistant to Duffy Daugherty in 1971. As defensive coordinator, his units ranked second and third in the league in total defense.

Prior to joining Daugherty, Stolz was head coach at Alma College in Michigan from 1965-70. Taking over a team that had won just three games in four years, he molded Alma into a Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) power. During his six years as head coach, his teams won three MIAA titles, compiled an 18-game win streak and posted back-to-back unbeaten seasons in 1967 and 1968.

A 1955 graduate of Alma and a native of Lansing, Mich., Stolz got his start in coaching at Haslett High School where he had a nine-year record of 40-13-3 from 1955-63. He also spent a year as defensive coordinator at Lansing Eastern High School in 1964.

Denny and his wife, Cena, are the parent's of a son, Doak, 19, and daughters, Dawn, 18, and Denise, 11.

Willie Matthews Overcomes Injuries

By Kevin McDermott

In Willie Matthews' mind there was never any doubt. Even after missing all of last season with a knee injury that required surgery and missing spring practice this year with an injury to his other knee, Willie always felt he'd be back.

"I never thought about quitting. The only way I would have quit is if the doctor told me to," said Matthews, a senior flanker from Sandusky (Perkins). "I always thought I'd play again," he said.

After alternating with Titus Taylor in the opener against Eastern Michigan, Willie has since been given more and more playing time as his knee rehabilitates.

"Right now I'm between 90 and 100%. My time in the 40 is up to 4.6 from 4.5, but I ran that back in the summer. I'm a lot stronger now," said Matthews, the Falcons leading receiver this season.

Willie made the team as a walk-on in the fall of 1975 then led the Falcons in kickoff returns and grabbed 35 passes as a junior. This year however, returning kicks is not among his game day duties.

"I'd love to be a return man again but that's up to the coaches. 'I'll do whatever I can to help the team,' said Matthews. 'I'll go where they want me.'"

"If we play up to our potential and the right people develop, we have as good as chance as anybody to be a winner," said Matthews.

Because he didn't play last season, Matthews missed a year of Mike Wright's tosses, something he truly regrets.

"Mike Wright," said Matthews, "is the best quarterback I've ever seen in a game I played. Some of the things he does are amazing."

Looking toward the future, Matthews feels he'll have a couple of options with a business education degree.

"If I don't go into teaching, I'll probably go into the business world," he said.

A member of Phi Beta Sigma fraternity, Willie serves as their chaplain. He's been doing the same in the locker room.

"Myself and a couple others lead a prayer service before all our games," said the talented receiver. "It's something I enjoy."

Willie Matthews himself is something to enjoy.

Doug Wiener Never Stops Working

By Kevin McDermott

Doug Wiener does not discourage easily. Despite standing as Bowling Green's most experienced running back, the fourth year tailback has been pushed out of a Saturday afternoon job by sophomores Kevin Folkes and Dave Cassel and freshman Jeff McCormack, and into the weekday grind as a scout team member. In other words, he runs the upcoming opponents plays more than his own.

Most anyone else would brood about the demotion. Doug Wiener however, is a unique individual with an attitude unlike many.

"I'm not down," said Doug a graduate of Canton Central Catholic High School. "I'm on the scout team and I'm going to do my best. I have to. If I'm going to get back on top I'm going to have to work my tail off," he said.

As a freshman, Wiener played behind Dave Preston, who now plays for the Denver Broncos of the National Football League. Because of injuries to Preston, Wiener saw considerable action that year and responded with a fine season including a three touchdown, 130 yard effort against Southern Illinois. "The highlight of my career," says Doug.

After suffering through an injury riddled sophomore season, Wiener came back to start the first eight games last fall until being pushed back to the second unit.

This year however, is a different story.

"It's been a tough adjustment. I want to play football more than anything. I loved that responsibility to do well,"

Doug said of his old starting role.

Even though he now plays on the third team and the season doesn't look promising for Doug Wiener the individual, he is not about to pack it all in.

"I'd never quit. That's the easiest thing in the world to do. Playing is important to me, but having fun is more important, and I'm having fun," said Doug.

As for the 1979 season, the business administration major has set no personal goals but does admit to a significant team priority. Something high on everyone's list at Bowling Green.

"I want a winning season more than anything," Doug said. "It's been too long."

As a final thought, Doug considered his situation with a determined attitude.

"I'm in a different spot than I've ever been in, and I'm going to work until I get my old one back. I'm short on time but I'm not going to stop until it's all over," he said.

You can count on that.

THE FIRST CHEVY OF THE '80s. CITATION. OUR MOST SUCCESSFUL NEW CAR EVER.

Ever since its introduction, people have been flooding Chevy showrooms across the country to see the 1980 Chevy Citation. And according to Retail Delivery Reports, 33,765 units were sold in its first three weeks, more than any new entry Chevrolet has ever introduced.

MID-SIZE ROOM FOR 5.

Citation's engine is mounted sideways, so the passenger compartment can be bigger. In fact, in EPA interior dimensions, Citation is classified as a mid-size car. With the back seat folded down there's room enough for two adults in front and 30 bags of groceries in back.

0 TO 50 IN 9 SECONDS FLAT WITH THE AVAILABLE V6.

In engineering tests, Citation goes from 0 to 50 in 9 seconds flat. That's with available 2.8 Liter V6 engine and automatic transmission. California figures not available. (Citation is equipped with GM-built engines produced by various divisions. See your dealer for details.)

EASY ON GAS. 24 EPA ESTIMATED MPG. 38 HIGHWAY ESTIMATE.

That's with Citation's standard 2.5 Liter 4-cylinder engine and manual transmission. (Manual transmission currently not available in California. Calif. estimates lower.)

Citation's standard 4-speed transmission is made to conserve gas. It's an overdrive. And at cruising speeds the 4th gear lets the engine run slower than with a conventional transmission, helping to get impressive fuel economy.

IMPRESSIVE LONG-RANGE CRUISING ESTIMATES, TOO.

And Citation's long-range cruising estimates are just as impressive. 336 miles based on EPA estimated MPG (city) mileage figures, and 532 miles based on estimated highway MPG. Range figures obtained by multiplying Citation's 14-gallon fuel tank capacity rating by the EPA mileage estimates.

REMEMBER: Compare the circled estimated MPG to the estimated MPG of other cars. You may get different mileage and range depending on your speed, trip length and weather. Your actual city mileage and range will be less in heavy city traffic. Your actual mileage will probably be less than the highway estimate.

YOU'VE GOT TO DRIVE IT TO BELIEVE IT.

When you drive Citation you'll see what all the excitement is about. The way it feels. The way it maneuvers. The way it rides. And Citation's front wheel drive puts approximately 65% of its weight over the "driving wheels" to give you impressive traction on wet or snowy roads.

IT'S A WHOLE NEW KIND OF COMPACT CAR.

There's still a lot about Citation that we haven't mentioned. Like slip stream design to cut down on wind resistance and wind noise. The hidden cargo area in all hatchback models, so what's inside is protected from view. A dual diagonal braking system. And much, much more. That's why we encourage you to see your Chevy dealer and test drive the 1980 Chevy Citation today. This could be the car you've had in mind.

New openings from Honda.

HONDA PRELUDE

HONDA ACCORD®
4-DOOR SEDAN

At Honda we have never believed in making lots of different types of cars. But 1979 is a different kind of year for Honda. We've introduced two new cars. The Accord 4-Door Sedan and the Honda Prelude. You might say we've opened things up a bit. Literally.

Our new Prelude boasts a power-operated, tinted glass moonroof as standard equipment. The moonroof comes with a manual sunshade, like the window shade on a jetliner.

Not only does our new Accord sedan have four doors, it has a nice, big trunk as well. It also has a lever that allows you to release the lid from the driver's seat. So if you're thinking about buying a new car, take a close look at our new Hondas. And open the door to simplicity.

HONDA

We make it simple.

FALCON QB HAS BRIGHT FUTURE

By Steve Shutt

"He's in a class by himself."

"He's the best we've ever had."

"Nobody can touch him as far as being an all-around quarterback."

The compliments are all used to describe Mike Wright, Bowling Green State University's quarterback. A first team All-Mid-American Conference pick in 1978, Wright is being touted for All-American status in '79.

Wright came to Bowling Green three years ago because he wanted to play football and basketball. He came out of Wellsville (O.) High School as a rare first team All-Stater in both sports but football soon became his primary sport.

Wright spent his first two years as an understudy to Mark Miller, now with the Cleveland Browns. People proclaimed Miller to have been the best quarterback ever to set foot in the cornfields of Northwest Ohio.

Until Mike Wright inherited Miller's starting berth.

Last year, the 6-3, 195 pound senior made his first collegiate start a memorable one as he set a school mark in total offense while completing a season-high 21 passes at Villanova. Wright continued his explosive showing the next week by tossing three touchdown passes in a 43-6 win over Eastern Michigan and then leading his powerful offensive unit to 706 yards of total offense in a 49-3 win over Grand Valley State.

The Falcons finished 20th in the nation in total offense last year while Wright was ranked seventh among individuals in the same department.

But 1979 is different for Bowling Green. There are new faces at tailback and fullback. Not because of graduation but because of better personnel.

"Our offense will be even better because we have a lot more speed in our backfield," said Wright. Among those hoping to streak past defenders are Kevin Folkes, Kevin Browning and Jeff McCormack.

"Our receivers have more depth and we have lots of depth in the backfield, too," Wright continued. "With our running, we're going to keep the defense on its heels; they're not going to know if we're going to run or pass."

One of the reasons for last year's quick offensive start was that Falcon opponents weren't prepared for a quarterback of Wright's abilities. "Up until about the middle of last season, we snuck up on people," said Wright. "They had to adjust to a runner and a passer compared to the year before when Miller was mostly a passer. This year it's no secret."

Wright has some tough competition in his battle for All-America honors with such standouts as Purdue's Mark Hermann and Southern Methodist's Mike Ford. The publicity surrounding the popular senior has not changed his attitude or style of play.

"With the offensive people we have, I think my chances are better," he said. "I go in to a game trying to do my best and not trying to overcompensate for the whole team. I'm very glad to even be considered. But I'm going to take one play at a time and one game at a time. If the team does well and I do well as an individual, we'll see what happens. But I'll just have to take it in stride."

One of Coach Denny Stolz' concerns with his prize quarterback is that Mike likes to run the ball himself. And he does it very well. "We hope not to expose Mike as much this year because of our depth in running backs," said Stolz.

Stolz continued with his praise of his prize quarterback. "If we lost Mike Wright then we're really in trouble. There is nobody in Mike's category. He makes such great plays that you think you have him then—bang—he's gone. He's in a class by himself and he can't be replaced. He's bright, has great intelligence and he's fun to coach."

Wright's future appears very bright. He has a strong offensive line in front of him and his receivers and runners are top notch. But following the season, what lies in store for Wright?

"Playing pro ball has always been a goal of mine and last year it became a goal of my parents also. I hope and pray . . . It's going to take a lot of hard work during the season and before next year. I have lots of friends and coaches who push and drive me and give me help. The guys on the team take pride in what I do and I, in turn, take pride in their accomplishments."

Coach Robert Whittaker

Robert H. Whittaker To Receive 1979 Honorary Letterman Award

Former BGSU football and track coach Robert H. Whittaker will receive the Varsity BG Club's sixth "Honorary Letterman" award during pre-game ceremonies.

The coveted "Honorary Letterman" award is presented annually to an individual who did not earn an official BG varsity letter, but provided outstanding service to the Falcon sports program. Previous recipients have been Dr. Sam Cooper ('74), Glenn Sharp ('75), Betty Whittaker ('76), Ted Wolfram ('77), and Willard Wankelman ('78).

Whittaker will add the 1979 "Honorary Letterman" award to an impressive list of plaudits. A member of the BGSU Athletic Hall of Fame, he was recently tapped for similar honors at Miami University, his alma mater. In further tribute, BG's modern outdoor running complex has been fittingly named "Whittaker Track".

The BGSU Falcon Club will also salute two outstanding former Falcons. Recipient of the club's annual "Silver Letter Award" is Gib Foster of Bowling Green, while Jim O'Brien of Oregon, O., will receive the "Gold Letter Award". These awards are presented to lettermen who have served the Falcon sports program for 25 and 50 years, respectively.

Band Presents A "Super" Show

This afternoon, the Falcon Marching Band will feature a series of "super" people and "super" music. The word "super" is defined as meaning superior, or of the highest quality, and the people, ideas, and music that we have chosen fits that definition.

The opening of the show features the title theme from the movie "Superman", and then follows "She Believes in Me", the latest gold record for country and western superstar, Kenny Rogers. The Marching Band's magnificent majorettes are next on the program, and then in a tribute to the late John Wayne, featuring "The High and the Mighty", "How the West Was Won", and the "Green Leaves of Summer". The music from "Annie", one of Broadway's most successful musicals, serves to close the show, as the band performs the most recognized song from this musical, "Tomorrow".

EAT IN OR TAKE OUT

Since 1965, one of the driving forces behind the Bowling Green State University athletic program has been the Falcon Club. The group offers a variety of activities to members and support by the members has had much to do with the success enjoyed by various Falcon teams. Luncheons, such as the one above, are just one of the many activities available to members.

THE FALCON CLUB JOIN TODAY!

Dear Falcon Fan:

We share with you an enthusiastic desire for winning athletics at Bowling Green. In order to sustain a winning program, however, we must meet the financial challenges of athletic excellence.

Falcon Club membership offers you an opportunity to get behind our teams and coaches. Falcon Club donations have been the salvation of our program, and to win in 1979 will require a supreme Falcon Club effort.

I am interested in learning more about the Falcon Club and its activities.
